The End of an Era

By: Carrie Chase and Glenn Knight

May 21, 2011 will mark the end of President Teddy Long's final semester in college. He'll have to retire his red Solo cup, strap on his moose hunting gear and head up North with his wife, Betty, to "vacationland," Maine.

After fifteen years of serving Elizabethtown College, Long said the college has "become increasingly recognized as one of the best comprehensive institutions in the country," and is happy with the direction the college is going.

Long joined the college in 1996. There were three things that made a difference in him coming to Etown. The first factor was the mission of the college. "It was one I deeply believed in and was very attractive to me. What it stood for, all those things sounded like me."

The second factor was the college's campus community. "The place is gorgeous, the people were grand, there's a lot of intense engagement here between faculty and students. I remember when I asked the search committee what characterized Etown, they talked a lot about the spirit of community."

And the final factor was that Elizabethtown was a good college, which had potential to be a better college. He said, "It wasn't a broken college that needed to be fixed...there was a positive challenge for me as a leader."

When Long first arrived at the college he had a list of goals that he wanted to complete, but talked to the campus community to make a more "developed direction as a campus community," Long said.

And although not every single goal was met, all of the broad goals were met as a team. "There are always things you wish you could have gotten done," Long said. In 2006, Long formed a strategic vision with the campus community which involved global education, purposeful life work and a unique education. "The facilities are stronger, stronger faculty, there's more program diversity, more money, more opportunity and a stronger reputation," Long said.

"They took a survey of college presidents, what keeps you up at night? Other presidents said balancing the budget, maintaining enrollment, the right class. But I'm concerned if I've gotten the personnel right."

Long stated that the hardest part is getting the management right and support of people. "Things such as lifting those people up or dismissing them from the college or disciplining them, making sure what I was doing the right thing," Long said.

Long and wife Betty talked about retiring during the summer of 2009. The two looked at their life, the life of the college and the circumstances around them. "Betty and I wanted to do things together...like lead a trip to Italy with a group of friends," Long said.

Long looked at what would have to happen for the college to become better in the next few years "and the next run was going to take five to seven years," Long said. "It was more than I wanted to give, so I better quit now."

Long then talked with the board late in the fall about his retirement plans. "They weren't surprised. They knew it was coming," Long said.

As for the future, the couple plans on moving to Maine. "We purchased a house in Rockland, Maine about twelve to thirteen years ago with the anticipation of retiring there. Betty likes it cold, and I'm the warm weather person. So in the winter time, I'll probably go south for part of that. Fortunately, my daughter lives in Florida so that will help," joked Long. "We just want to have fun."

When asked about the Long's favorite memory of Elizabethtown College he said, "I could give one-hundred things. It's hard to name one favorite memory. Really hard."

So what did the president say he was his favorite memory at the college? "The kind of affection I've gotten from students. When I come into a room or the Brossman Commons, everyone calls me Teddy and things like that. It's very joyful. It signifies a lot of things about the character about our community." It's easy to say that after May 21, Teddy will still be our homeboy.

Senior Week 2011

Elizabethtown College's Senior Week 2011 kicked off on Wednesday, May 18th with the Senior Cookout. The senior class members enjoyed fried chicken, corn on the cob, potato salad and other cookout favorites. The cookout was held in the KAV due to rainy weather, but it didn't put a damper on the moral of the students.

The members of the Class of '11 started the second day of Senior Week with 'Starbucks & Memories' at the Raffensperger Alumni House. Seniors enjoyed freshly baked French pastries, fresh fruit, gourmet teas, and Starbucks Coffee as they laughed and cried over the memories pictured in the Senior Slide Show.

Another E-town Senior Week tradition is the Senior Adventure. Despite the rainy weather, this event didn't disappoint with fun, thrills, and water! Seniors had non-stop fun with unlimited go-karts and bumper boats at Adventure Sports in Hershey. Every senior got to be a kid again! Attendees also got the chance to see all the movies they wanted for free at MovieTown, in addition to free bowling at Clearview Lanes.

On the evening of Thursday, May 19th, graduates were invited to the Susquehanna Room for dinner with the President and the Senior Class Toast. Students were treated with steak hot off the grill, mouthwatering barbecued chicken, and grilled portabella mushrooms in addition to very tempting desserts.

Ted and Betty Long personally welcomed all seniors. A champagne toast was also held to commemorate the years at Elizabethtown.

The final day of Senior Week was kicked off with 'The Morning After' breakfast in the Thompson Gym. Students enjoyed Starbucks Coffee, fresh fruit, and baked treats followed by graduation rehearsal.

Seniors were recognized at the All-College Picnic and Seniors' Choice Awards held in the Marketplace. The Class of 2011 waited in suspense to see who won the coveted awards during lunch.

Baccalaureate

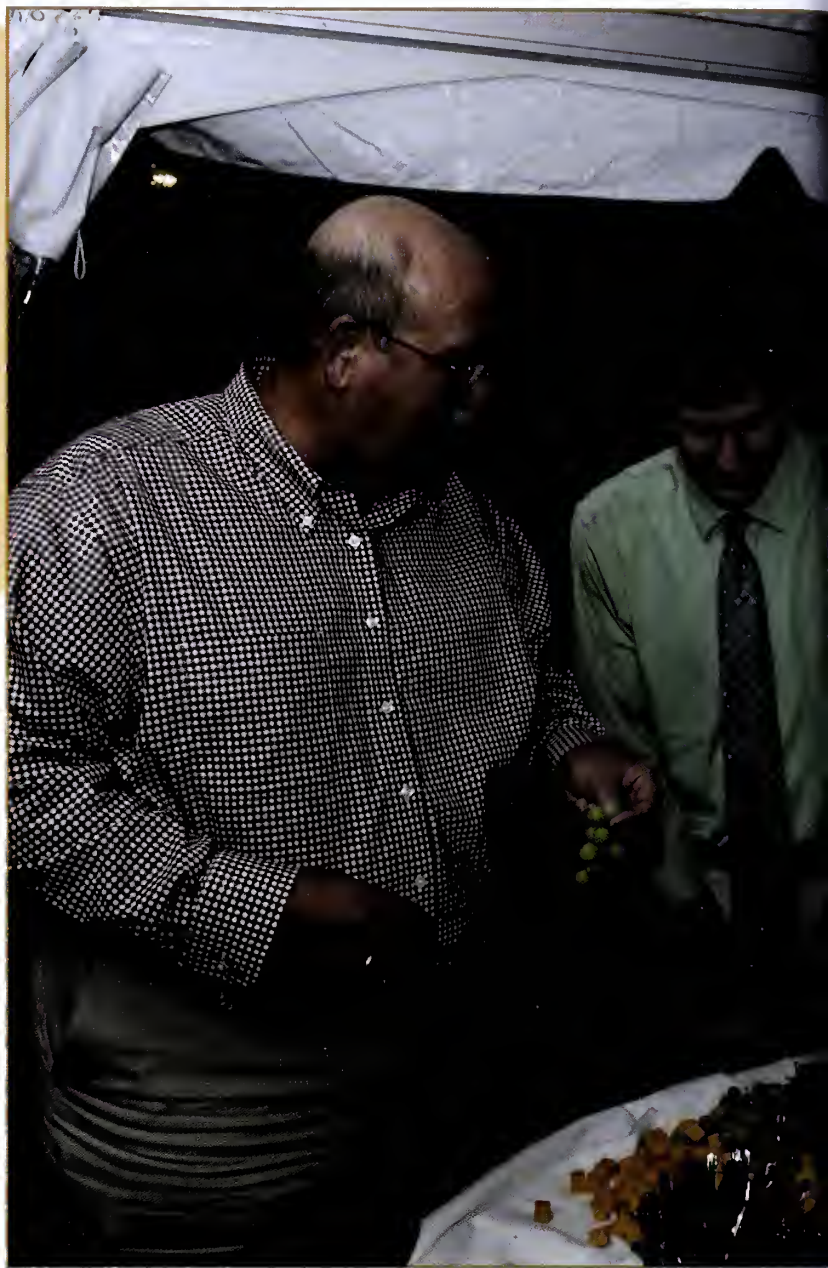

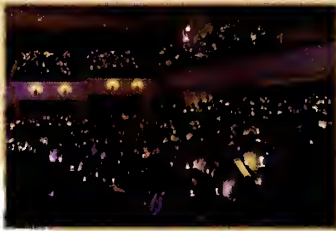

Senior Week came to a close with the 2011 Baccalaureate Service held in Leffler Chapel on the evening of May 20th. The theme for this year's service was "Blessings." Seniors from a variety of backgrounds, religions, and races shared how they feel blessed and in what ways Elizabethtown added to that feeling of accomplishment. Many of the students shared their personal stories of struggle and accomplishment of how they got to where they are today.

In addition, the traditional Senior Choir was present and performed several musical ballads. The service ended with an experience similar to the Class of 2011's Induction into Elizabethtown College. Everyone in the chapel lit candles and reflected on Etown and its effect on them.

Following the ceremony, Reflections by the Lake was held by Lake Placida. This event offered a time of fellowship for graduating seniors and their guests and the College's faculty and staff. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and non-alcoholic beverages were served as all anticipated the Commencement Ceremony to be held the next day.

Baccalaureate

Commencement

Elizabethtown College held its 108th Commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 21, 2011. The College proudly about 500 students who completed the necessary requirements to receive a degree. These students represented almost 20 majors and 80 minors and concentrations. Several graduates met the requirements to be inducted into one of the institution's honoraries.

This year, 11 graduates are members of the Elizabethtown College Honors Program. About 90 international and study abroad students stood among our graduates wearing multi-colored sashes that represented the approximately 30 countries that they called home or were a location in which they studied.

This year's proceedings were led by Grand Marshal

Thomas R. Leap '74 and Marshal Carroll R. Tyminski. President Theodore E. Long and Provost and Senior Vice President Susan Traverso conferred the degrees. The 2011 Commencement Address was given by President Theodore E. Long, as this marked his last commencement as Elizabethtown College President. Also in attendance at this year's Commencement Ceremony was the graduating class of 1961. These members celebrated their 50th reunion at the ceremony.

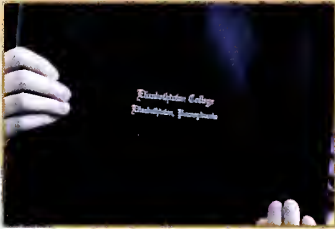

Two honorary degrees were awarded to Dr. Thomas R. Kepple Jr, President of Juniata College, and Betty G. Long, for their hard work and dedication to community service and higher education.

HERSHE

On August 26, 2010 500 first-year students began their transition into college life. Upper class students and peer mentors welcomed the students to their new home here at Elizabethtown College. The upper class students helped move in all of the first year's belongings. After the first years were settled in they said farewell to their parents, and then joined their peer mentor groups to begin the orientation fun. The friendly peer mentors were available to assist the students in their transition, starting with having the students engage in many activities to keep them busy and occupied. Some of the fun activities included the Root Beer Float Luau, performances by school groups such as; Melica, Mad Cow, and Phalanx, and dessert at the Alumni house. Students had the opportunity to meet other classmates and get a feel for the surrounding community when they took part in the First-Year Walk. First years were guided by upper classmen walking three-abreast and sporadically being pulled out of the huge group to perform entertaining activities. First year students were also presented with an early way to start getting involved on campus by becoming a part of Student Senate. They could get up on stage in Leffler Chapel and give an impromptu speech encouraging their new peers to vote for them. The long weekend came to an end with Convocation. All of the new students were able to sign the pledge of integrity, pledging that they would be honest and uphold integrity, marking the start of a new academic year.

This year's Homecoming and Family Weekend was filled with social and sporting events, reunions and entertainment, and plenty of family-friendly activities for alumni, students and the community. The festivities began on Friday, October 15, 2010. The weather was perfect Friday afternoon for everyone to go out and enjoy the Field Hockey, Volleyball, and Lacrosse games. At night families sat back and relaxed at the Family Dessert Social in the KAV, and then enjoyed the Mad Cow Improv Homecoming Show in Gibble. Saturday morning the day of activities began early with the Annual Homecoming Parade. After the parade families enjoyed brunch in the marketplace. Other activities in the day consisted of a softball game, a soccer game, an alumni reunion, department reunions, tours of campus and the annual alumni Oktoberfest party. Clubs and organizations also set up on Brinser Field for the homecoming fair, where students could buy an assortment of things. Including toothpick holders, t-shirts, mugs, food and much more. Families were able to enjoy a concert starring the Valerie Nicole Band and For The Greater Good while they wandered around the fair. The KAV was also set up as a family entertainment zone where families could play games, and take photo booth pictures. The night ended with a Homecoming candlelight and Jazz dinner Buffett, and the First Annual Homecoming A Cappella Extravaganza Concert.

The fall semester's main stage theater production was not just any ordinary play, but rather the hit Broadway musical, Cabaret. The play, that focuses on Sally Bowles and her romances with two men in the cabaret clubs in Berlin as Nazi Germany rises to power around the entertainers. The play, directed by Michael Swanson, chair of the Fine and Performing Arts Department with choreography by Kristin Pontz, an adjunct dance professor highlighted the talents of junior Clara DeAngelo as Sally Bowles and Ethan Shearer as the Master of Ceremonies. While the play intertwined humor and raunch with the seriousness of the issues plaguing a Nazi-ridden Germany, it was DeAngelo along with her Kit Kat Klub that stole the show. The group comprised of first-year Owen Howson, sophomores Betty Lai and Amy Osterhoudt, junior Hayley Mazzur and seniors Travis Lucas, Michael O'Connell, Nathan Shughart, Rebecca Altland, Melissa Fitts and Emily Knitter. The group not only entertained the audience with their dancing and singing but also lightened up the heavy atmosphere and told the story of the German Cabaret's during the time of Nazi Germany.

Elizabethtown students charged into the streets on October 23, 2010 to kick off the annual community wide service project day. Into the Streets is a program designed to introduce more students to thoughtful community service and to provide a learning experience that will challenge them to volunteer on a regular basis. In its 16th year, Into the Streets was started off by a rally on Friday night with performances by Phalanx, Melica, and several other groups. On Saturday morning the day began with a breakfast at 7:30 AM. There were approximately 600 registered volunteers and 43 student groups that donated their time throughout the day. There were 55 different projects that students were involved in. The projects were broken down into categories some of which included, youths, senior citizens, environment, and social issues and health. Students could read with children, serve as a tutor, rake, clean up along the Conewago Creek, plant trees, help local Spanish-speaking residents, along with many other activities. This day of service benefited not only the community but also the students. The day was about being involved in the community but also helping others and doing work. It acts as a great learning experience!

Who was your teenage dream? The annual Mr. Etown beauty pageant was held on Friday, March 25th at Leffler Chapel. Last year's Mr. Etown, Nathan Shugart, hosted the event alongside senior Kate Walsh. The two were quite the pair. Making jokes and talking about Nate's experience as Mr. Etown, Nate and Kate were entertaining and kept the show moving. This year's Mr. Etown candidates made for a great and competitive show. The eight candidates are were: Royer - Andrew Mariani; Myer - Owen Poison; Ober - Joe Renzi; Brinser - Dan Silver; Founders - Ryan Stadel; Apartments - Mike Galanek; Quads - Gabe Robinson; Off-Campus - Tony Pacella. With the help of friends and the popular dance club, Emotion, the eight candidates put on a very entertaining show including a group dance, individual performances, and a question and answer round. Many of the individual performances were about the candidate's lives up till now, as well as some forbidden romances. During the Q&A round, Disney Princess, Ariel showed up along with her friends Flounder and Sebastian, as well as the President with his Secret Service, Woody and Buzz from Toy story, and the ballet dancers from Black Swan. After much deliberation and hundreds of text-in votes, first and second runners-up were Gabe Robinson and Andrew Mariani, respectively. After waiting with anticipation, Nate and Kate crowned Dan Silver as Mr. Etown, 2011.

The school organization Colleges Against Cancer spent all year planning for its biggest event, Relay For Life, in its sixth year. The event began at 6 PM, going through the night and into the morning until 6 AM. Over 600 participants signed up to spend the night walking around the track in the Thompson Gymnasium. This event was kicked off by welcoming survivors and all of the teams who were participating. There were many activities that participants could enter their teams in, including 4 square, large pong, a blindfolded race, volley ball and soccer. Teams battled for points in these events and also the themed laps that occurred every hour in hopes of winning a prize at the end of the night. Also during the night, students could visit the midway fair in the Jay Walk, where teams did on site fundraising to raise last minute donations by selling items like food, drinks, and t-shirts. To keep students motivated throughout the night different groups like Phalanx, Vocalign, For the Greater Good, Melica, and Emotion performed. Also a Luminaria service was held to honor those who have been touched by cancer, and remember those who have lost to the disease. During this time the lights were turned out, and the Luminaria bags all around the track illuminated the path for walking. Participants were also encouraged to help raise awareness about cancer, during the Fight Back Ceremony. As the sun began to rise and teams finished their last laps around the track, they gathered to hear the amount of money that had been raised. Committee members slowly revealed the amount showing everyone that $75,250 had been raised.

It was an evening fit for old Hollywood royalty as 2011's Junior-Senior formal kicked off Feb. 26, 2011 at the Hilton on King Street in nearby Lancaster, Pa. The impeccably decorated venue perfectly highlighted the glamorous theme as students traveled from Etown's campus to enjoy an evening of food, fun, dancing and friends. Upperclassmen students began the evening with a cocktail hour. While those who were of age indulged in signature drinks while others enjoyed hors d'vours while posing for photos in the lobby of the hotel. Dinner hour commenced around eight as tables were dismissed one-by-one to the buffet line. The long line wasn't a factor for many students though, as they socialized with one another and enjoyed the evening off-campus. Dinner was mostly comprised of a chicken and meat buffet with various sides and students were presented with a martini glass filled with champagne to commemorate the evening. Though the dinner hour ended early, the party kicked off in-style as students danced to songs and beats provided by an area disc jockey as well as socialized amongst themselves in the various hotel rooms around the hotel room. Overall it was an evening that provided many laughs, smiles and memories and a special thanks goes to the Etown Senate Class of 2012, who was instrumental in putting the evening together.

A Nights in Havana

The weekend of April 28 through April 30 was time for Elizabethtown College students to “Rumble in the Jungle.” That was the theme of this year’s TGIS—Thank Goodness It’s Spring—weekend on campus. TGIS, sponsored by the Office of Student Activities is a weekend full of fun activities for the students. The fun event started off on Thursday, April 28 with Tuika’s Polynesian Island Magic on Brinser Field. Students could watch Polynesian dancers and enjoy themed snacks and drinks. Later that night, students could participate in Gator Games which took place in Thompson Pool. The movie Tarzan was shown all weekend. On Friday, free smoothies and stuffed jungle animals were given out to students and jungle animal face painting was offered. Saturday, however, brought the main event to which everyone looks forward. The event was held on Brinser field and students enjoyed jungle themed snacks and drinks and played on fun inflatables. The weather was perfect making everyone Thanking Goodness it was Spring.

Students in the Fine and Performing Arts department at Elizabethtown College debuted “A Dream Play” on Thursday, April 7. “A Dream Play” was written by August Strindberg in 1901. The plot of the play follows the illogical logic of a dream – characters merge, locations change in an instant, and time and place do not exist. “A Dream Play” is a mix of Freud and Alice in Wonderland. A woman named Agnes, played by Senior Emily Knitter, visits from another world to see if life really is as difficult as she hears people say it is. “A Dream Play” features a cast of 14 students, in addition to Knitter, and was directed by Michael Swanson, coordinator of theatre and dance. The scene and sounds were designed by senior Jess Roberts and costumes were coordinated by senior Megha Timney.

The Elizabethtown College Men's Cross Country team started off the 2010-2011 season by being ranked 20th in the Division III Preseason Poll. Finishing in the top 10 in all of their meets, the team proved they have what it takes to make this ranking a reality by working hard all season long. As a team, they held on to their Middle Atlantic Conference Championship title, coming in first place for the second year in a row. The team placed five runners in the top six, easily earning the team their 11th MAC title in program history and marking their 10th title in the past 12 years. In addition to winning the title, several Blue Jay runners also won awards. Junior Charlie Larsen took home MAC Runner of the Year honors, Junior Steve Welsh earned MAC Rookie of the Year, and Coach Chris Straub was named MAC Coach of the Year for the ninth time. Their successes, however, did not end there. The team went on to compete at the NCAA Mideast Regional. The junior runners led the team to a 4th place finish, earning them a bid to the NCAA Division III Championships. Junior Eric Reichert became the program's first two-time All-American by finishing 11th overall at the Division III Championships, finishing just 17 seconds behind the first place runner. The team finished 14th overall and ended the season being ranked 16th nationwide for Division III cross country.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Lady Blue Jay runners started the 2010 season off with high hopes. They finished their last season in first place in the Middle Atlantic Conference and placing sixth at the NCAA Division III Mid-east Regional. This season, they topped that by holding on to their MAC Championship title, placing 4rd in the Mid-east Regional and earning a bid to compete at the NCAA Division III Championships. Sophomore Taryn Shank led the women's cross country team to a third place finish at the Mid-east Regional with an individual finish of eighth place with a time of 22:22.6. The second Blue Jay to cross the finish line was first-year Traci Tempone, coming in less than a minute after Shank. The top five Blue Jay runners rounded out the top 54 runners earning them a third place finish. Shank also led the team to their 11th place finish at the NCAA Division III National Championships, with a 52nd place individual finish with a time of 22:01.8. The average time for the team's performance at Nationals was 22:28.9 and their finish was the highest in program history since a 19th place finish in 2004. The Blue Jays were ranked 29th at the end of the regular season and proved to be better than that. The team continues to work hard and hopes to finish in the top ten at next year's NCAA Division III National Championships.

FIELD HOCKEY

At the start of the season, the Lady Jays were tied for fourth place in the Commonwealth Preseason Poll. The team started the season off strong by winning four of the first six games. Their successes continued on throughout the season, finishing their sixth straight winning season with an overall record of 14-5 and a conference record of 5-2. The team played exceptionally throughout their eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season. The Lady Jays' hard work and dedication throughout the season earned them a spot in the Commonwealth Conference semifinals for the second year in a row against Lebanon Valley. Unfortunately, the Dutchmen came out on top defeating the Blue Jays 4-2, ending their season. The team, however, had three players recognized on the Commonwealth Conference's all-conference teams. Seniors Linsey Fasold and Julie Foster were first team selections and Liz DeMatteis was a second team pick. Julie Foster was also selected to play in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Division III Senior All-Star Game. Foster was the fifth Elizabethtown Field Hockey player to be selected to play in this prestigious game. The Lady Jays hope to emulate their successes for next season as they will lose seven players to graduation. Good luck to them in the future!

GOLF

The Elizabethtown College Golf team had high hopes at the start of the 2010-2011 season after finishing in third place at the Commonwealth Conference Championships. The team worked hard throughout the season to capitalize on last year's successes. Finishing in the top half of 7 out of 13 matches, the team earned a spot at the Commonwealth Conference Championships. After the first day, the Blue Jays were on top of the competition. Seniors Geoff Quinque, Dan Senkler and Nick Iacono shot 79, 80, and 81 to finish day 1 at third, fourth, and fifth, respectively. The second day ended in Elizabethtown's favor, winning the Commonwealth Conference Championship. Senkler led the Blue Jays to victory by shooting the day's best round of 73, only two over par. The Conference title is Elizabethtown's third in program history and earned them a spot at the NCAA Division III Championships, where they finished 35th overall, finishing out an overall excellent season by the Elizabethtown Golf team. Senkler, Iacono, and Quinque all earned first team selections to the All-Commonwealth Conference team.

SOCCER

The Elizabethtown College Men's Soccer team placed second in the Commonwealth preseason coaches' poll. The team is coming off a 13-3-1 season in 2009 and its eighth appearance in the Commonwealth Conference Championships. With hard work, the team hopes to capitalize on their successes last season and bring home a Championship trophy. Despite a rocky start to the 2010 season, the team went on a 10-game winning streak in the midst of the season, winning key matchups against conference teams. At the end of the season, the team's conference record was 6-1-0, only losing to Messiah College. This tremendous achievement helped to earn them a spot in the Conference Championship tournament. The team beat Arcadia University to propel them into the final round against Messiah College. The Blue Jays played lights out soccer against Arcadia, shutting them out to a 3-0 victory. Sophomore Cameron Wyllie had a hand in all three second half goals to propel the Jays to the victory. Now, it was time to face Messiah once again in the Commonwealth Conference Championship game. It was their sixth time in the past ten years facing each other in this final game. The number 3 ranked Falcons scored a goal with 38 minutes left in regulation time and held on to a 1-0 win over the Blue Jays. The Blue Jays ended their season with a 13-3-2 record. Having won 27 games in the last two seasons, the program will begin its 70th season in 2011 just 24 wins shy of 800.

SOCCER

The women's soccer team started the 2010 season off on the right foot winning their first two games. Sophomore Amy Bunting scored twice in the first half against Bridgewater College to propel the Jays to a 4-2 victory. The Lady Jays continued to work hard throughout the season winning key matchups against Lycoming and Susquehanna, but despite being picked to finish third overall in the Commonwealth Conference preseason coaches' poll, they just couldn't hold true to that statement. In their last game of the season, versus conference rival Messiah College, goalkeeper Jess Manchak made seven saves, and kept the number one team in division III women's soccer scoreless for nearly 70 minutes. Despite this sophomore's hard work in the net, the Lady Jays were only able to have one shot on goal, losing the game 0-2. The team, missing out on a playoff spot by just one point, finished their season 8-7-3 overall. The Lady Jays were able to score 32 goals throughout the season and sophomore Laura Wingert scored the most with 9. Three players from the women's soccer team were placed on All-Conference teams. The lucky ladies were sophomores Laura Wingert and Amy Bunting, and senior Paige Minka who all earned first-team selections.

TENNIS

The Elizabethtown College women's tennis team's 2010-2011 season started off with a bang during the fall portion of the season. The Lady Jays came close to securing titles at the 2010 Middle Atlantic Conference Individual Championships. Sophomores Madison Pipkin and Kristi Joecker reached singles championship matches and two Elizabethtown women's tennis doubles pairs also earned a spot in the title match-ups. Despite making it to the final round, the ladies could not outshine Wilkes University, who ended up taking home all nine titles. This unfortunate end to the fall portion of the season did not put a damper on the remainder of the season. The team served up 12 victories throughout the rest of the season and was undefeated in their conference. Their success earned them a bid to the Commonwealth Conference Championships. The team played Lycoming in the first round, shutting them out with a score of 5-0, propelling them into the final round of the tournament against Lebanon Valley. The Blue Jays took two of three doubles matches, soaring over them to a 5-2 victory over the Dutchmen. Sophomore Alena Marani was named tournament MVP. This successful finish to the tournament earned the Elizabethtown Women's team a spot in the NCAA Division II Tennis Tournament. They were unfortunately swept in the first round by 14th ranked Carnegie Mellon. Four players from the tennis team were placed on all-conference teams. Sophomores Madison Pipkin and Allison Burkhardt were both first team selections, while junior Sarah Poulle and sophomore Alena Marani were second team picks. Head Coach Matt Helsel was named conference Coach of the Year for the sixth time in his career.

VOLLEYBALL

At the start of the season during the Commonwealth Conference preseason coaches' poll, the Elizabethtown College Volleyball team was picked to finish second overall. The team showed their dedication to making this prediction a reality by winning 5 of their first 8 matches and finishing the regular season with a 6-1 record in the conference and 22-9 record overall. Their success throughout the regular season earned them a spot in the Commonwealth Conference Championships where they first faced Widener University. The first time these two teams met earlier in the season, Widener walked away with a 3-1 victory. It was time for the Blue Jays to avenge their loss. Junior Kelsey Hayes paced the Blue Jays' attack with 12 kills, while sophomore Lindsay Palm added 10 of her own. As a team, the Jays only had 12 errors on the attack. Senior Crystal Agnew had a team-high 35 assists during the matchup. The Blue Jays walked away with a 3-0 win and a chance to rally Lebanon Valley for the Conference title. This trip to the finals marked Elizabethtown's fifth straight in Volleyball, however, the Blue Jays couldn't bring home the title. Lebanon Valley won the Conference title, beating Elizabethtown 3-0. Head coach Randall Kreider was named Coach of the Year in the Conference and sophomore Holly Bubb became the second player in program history to be named Commonwealth Conference Player of the Year. Bubb was the Conference leader in kills.

BASKETBALL

The Elizabethtown College men's basketball team started the season off strong by winning 9 of their first 10 games. Their hard work and dedication to winning was evident, not only at the start of the season, but throughout the entire season as well. The Blue Jays finished the regular season with an overall record of 16-8, reflecting a winning percentage of .667. In the midst of the season, during a game against Alvernia, senior Joe Flanagan scored his 1,000th point, leading the Blue Jays to a 80-59 victory. Flanagan became the 32nd player in program history to reach this milestone. Despite having a very successful first half of the season, the Blue Jays' season came to a finish in a game against Arcadia, who was undefeated at the time. The Blue Jays only had to win this game to earn a playoff berth. The team, however, cracked in the second half and lost with a score of 84-85. Although their once promising season ended with this unfortunate loss, two players were named to the All-Commonwealth Conference Second Team. Flanagan led the team in scoring this season with a 15.9 points per game average. He joined his teammate, senior Keith Fogel with Second Team honors. Fogel was the team's second scoring leader, averaging 15.2 points per game.

BASKETBALL

The Elizabethtown College women's basketball team finished their 2010-2011 season with an overall record of 14-0 and a conference record of 6-8. In their final game of the season against Arcadia University, the team needed a win and a whole lot of luck to claim its first Commonwealth Conference playoff spot since the 2000-2001 season. They secured a 77-42 victory against Arcadia; however, Albright's loss to Messiah kept the Blue Jays out of the playoffs for yet another year. Needless to say, the Blue Jays did not have an entirely disappointing season. The team's 14 wins are the most by an Elizabethtown team since the 2003-2004 team went 14-11. The Blue Jay's senior leaders, Kaity Snyder and Megan Strohman were named to the All-Commonwealth Conference Second Team. Strohman and Snyder ranked first and second on the team in scoring, respectively. Strohman's 13.8 points per game average placed her in a tie for second in the Commonwealth Conference, while Snyder's 13.5 points per contest average was fifth best. Snyder was also honored for her achievement off the court. The Middle Atlantic Conference named her the 2010-2011 Women's Basketball Scholar Athlete.

The 2010-2011 Elizabethtown College swim teams opened their season with a pair of wins against Arcadia. The men's team won with a score of 86-82 while the women's team dominated the Knights winning 8 of 11 events and earning a victory of 124-76. In the midst of the season, both teams competed at the Franklin and Marshall Invitational. The Blue Jay men finished with 107 points, earning them an 8th of 9 placed finish, while the women's team finished 10th of 10 with a total of 105 points. With their efforts throughout the season, both teams earned themselves spots in the Middle Atlantic Conference championships. The women's team struggled in the beginning of the tournament, holding steady at 7th place after the second day. The first-years on the team dominated on the third day; however, propelling the team to a 6th placed finish out of 9 teams. Kimberly Cosgrove finished as the runner-up in the 1,650 yard freestyle with a season-best 18:39.37, and Abby Mitchell earned a silver medal in the 200 yard butterfly. The men's team finished 6th out of ten teams. Sophomore Ryan Hannon's 11th place finish in the 200 yard backstroke was the best result for the men's team at the event. His performance helped the Blue Jays earn their best ever finish at the MAC Championships.

BASEBALL

The Elizabethtown College Baseball team played a terrific 2010-2011 season. They finished the regular season with an overall record of 17-17. In the last doubleheader of the season against Lebanon Valley, the Blue Jays only needed one win to earn a spot in the playoffs. They waited until the very last minute to get it. Using a complete game four-hitter from senior pitcher Wayne Leonard in game two, Etown took a 6-1 victory to earn a spot in the postseason for the 13th straight season. In their first game of the playoffs, The Blue Jays upset the number 8th ranked Alvernia University. Ten combined runs were scored in the first three innings to make for an exciting matchup to start Elizabethtown's Commonwealth Conference Baseball Tournament opener. The Blue Jays beat the top-seeded Alvernia 3-7. In their second game, they lose to Messiah College, but stayed alive in the playoffs to play Alvernia once again. Their second meeting in this year's tournament had the same result with the Blue Jays coming out on top to propel them into the final round against Messiah College. The Blue Jays unfortunately could not catch up to Messiah and lost 5-11, ending their season.

SOFTBALL

Despite losing five of the first seven games, the Elizabethtown College Softball team finished the 2011 season strong. The team finished their season on a 4 game winning streak and with a record of 19-18. Their last doubleheader of the season was against Albright College. The Lady Blue days walked away with two victories, sweeping the Lions. Game one's victory also brought head coach Kathy Staib her 100th career win. Also in game one, Sophomore Elly McCarthy became Etown's all-time career home run leader when she hit a leadoff homer in the top of the sixth inning. This was her sixth homerun of the season and the 15th of her career. Coach Staib has produced winning seasons in each of her last two campaigns, and has led the Blue Jays to 15 wins or more three times since 2007. She is just the second softball coach in program history to eclipse 100 career wins. Two members of the Etown Softball team earned spots on the All-Commonwealth Conference First Team. Sophomore catcher Courtney Comstock scored a conference-high 41 runs during the regular season and caught every single pitch thrown by an Etown pitcher. She joined her teammate Elly McCarthy with the honors.

LACROSSE

The Elizabethtown College men's lacrosse team had a lot to be thankful for in the 2010-2011 season. They finished their regular season with a record of 8-6 overall and 6-5 in the Commonwealth conference. They earned a playoff berth with their victory of 15-9 against Misericordia College sending them to the quarterfinals against Eastern University. Eastern and Elizabethtown have been known to have two of the stingiest defenses in the league. It is a bit ironic that when these teams faced each other in this all important game, it turned into an offensive game. A combined 23 goals were scored. The sixth-seeded Blue Jays, the last team into the playoffs, held a 4-0 advantage over the final 15 minutes to down the number one seeded Eastern, 13-10, advancing them into the semifinal round against Widener University. Etown and Widener were deadlocked at 6-6 with five minutes of regulation time. The Pride went on to score twice in the final 4:43 to take home an 8-6 win, thus ending Elizabethtown's season. The Blue Jays ended their season in the MAC semifinals for the second straight season. Three Blue Jays made their way onto the All-MAC first Team including, senior brothers Greg Kenneally and Mike Kenneally and Junior Brendan Corcoran. Shawn Corcoran and Dustin Mulcahey both earned spots on the second team while Casey Decker rounded out Elizabethtown's six player selections with a spot on the honorable mention team at defense. Head coach Terry Corcoran guided the team to the MAC Conference Semifinals for the fifth time in his six seasons as head coach, earning him MAC Coach of the Year honors.

LACROSSE

The Elizabethtown College Women's Lacrosse team finished their 2010-2011 season second in the conference with an overall record of 16-4 and a conference record of 11-1. Their only conference loss was against Messiah in the regular season, which went on to win the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship, beating Elizabethtown. In the final game, the Blue Jays found themselves in an early hole and were never able to recover as the Falcons came out on top 16-6. Despite this unfortunate loss, the team had an outstanding regular season. They had an astonishing 9-game winning streak in the midst of the season which played a role in their 16-4 finish. The team also had several players honored by the Middle Atlantic Conference. For the third season in a row and the fourth time in school history, the MAC women's lacrosse Player of the Year came from the Elizabethtown Blue Jays. Senior captain Sarah Cullinan was awarded the honor and was just one of seven Blue Jays honored by the MAC. Cullinan matched a career-high with 51 goals this season. Joining Cullinan on the first team were sophomores Alexis Morris and Kara Solesky. Earning all-conference recognition for the first time were Lindsey Miller, Katie Scheurich and Bari Rosenstein. All three were named to the second team.

TENNIS

During the fall portion of their season, top-seeded Junior Manrique Arrea took home the number 1 singles title at the Middle Atlantic Conference Men's Individual Championships. This was just the beginning of one of the best seasons in Men's Tennis history at Elizabethtown College. Throughout the season, the Blue Jays held on to their undefeated Conference record of 6-0 and shutout rival Messiah College to advance to the Commonwealth Conference Championships for a third straight season. In the final match, the Blue Jays faced Lycoming University. For the first time since 2005 and the second time in school history, the Elizabethtown College men's tennis team won the Commonwealth Conference title. The top-seeded Blue Jays captured the championship and a trip to the NCAA tournament with a 5-0 win over the Warriors. Arrea was named tournament MVP to go along with his conference Player of the Year title. In the first round of the NCAA Division III Men's Tennis Tournament, the Blue Jays faced Grove City. The team however could not hold on to a victory and ended their 2011 season with a 5-3 loss.

TRACK & FIELD

The men of the Elizabethtown Track and Field started off the 2011 season being ranked 14th in the nation in Division III track and field. At their first indoor meet of the season (Navy Invitational), the team posted 15 all-time top 10 performances on the Blue Jays' indoor track and field list. At the Blue Jays' next meet, the relay team made up of First-Year Matt Rever, Sophomores Aaron Focht and Luke Rotenberger, and Junior Russell Speiden, ran the fastest 4,000m distance medley relay time in the nation this season for Division III track and field. The Blue Jays' successes did not end there. The team placed 3rd overall at both the Middle Atlantic Conference Indoor and Outdoor Championships. The track and field athletes had one last chance of the season to qualify for the Division III Indoor Track and Field Championships at the Swarthmore College Last Chance meet. Speiden dominated the competition in the mile. He broke the College record for the mile and posted the 11th best mile in the nation for Division III. He then went on to become the first Blue Jay All-American in that event. At the Outdoor Championships, the Blue Jays posted 15 all-conference performances on the final day of the meet. Rever earned a bid to compete in the 800m race at the 2011 NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Rever, who was one of two first-years competing in the event, finished 12th overall in the preliminary round of the race with only one-tenth of a second separating him from having a spot in the race finals. Rever's finish at the Outdoor Championships closed out the team's 2010-2011 season that was full of accomplishments.

School records were on the minds of the Elizabethtown College Womens Track and Field team this season. At the 2010-2011 season opening meet at Dickinson College, several Blue Jay women in particular led the team to a 4th place finish out of 8 teams. Sophomore Jenna Niedermayer claimed victory in the long and triple jumps and first-year Kristen Faulkner won the 400 meter dash. At the next meet, first-year Traci Tempone posted the third quickest time in the 5,000 meter race in school history. At the Widener Field Meet, Senior Allie Gold broke the schools indoor record for the pentathlon. Following their successes during the indoor portion of the season, the team took 2nd place at the Middle Atlantic Conference Indoor Championships. The Lady Jays went on to dominate the outdoor portion of the season as well, earning them a 2nd place finish at the MAC Outdoor Championships. This was their third straight runner-up finish at the Championships. Stemming from their hard work throughout the track and field season, first-years Traci Tempone and Eileen Cody earned bids to compete in the 10,000 meter event at the 2011 NCAA Division III Track and Field Championships at Ohio Wesleyan University. They did not let this experience go to waste. Tempone finished 14th and Cody 21st in the 22-runner field. The Blue Jay women were two out of only four first-years competing. This season marks the eighth time Elizabethtown College women's track and field was represented at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Championships since 2002.

The Conestogan Yearbook, volume 89, was produced by a select few of Elizabethtown College students. Taylor (Balfour) Publishing in Dallas, Texas printed the publication, which was overseen by plant account executive Robert Porter. Elizabethtown College's local representative, Ed Patrick, Jr. offered assistance in production stages, financial matters, and contributed ample advice. Also from Taylor Publishing, Creative Artist Seana Litt aided in the hands-on aspects of the book. Individual student portraits, in addition to a vast majority of candids, were taken by Herff Jones Photography, Inc., which was represented by account executive Mark Huff. One high-end Canon EOS Rebel XT_i was used for the campus life and club group shots, with all photographs being printed in the CMYK format. This year's cover was designed by the Conestogan staff. The 2011 edition was produced using two Dell Optiplex 755 machines running Microsoft Windows XP and Adobe Creative Suite 3. In the Creative Suite, InDesign and Photoshop were used for layout design and image manipulation, respectively. Fonts that were applied throughout the book included, but were not limited to: Covered By Your Grace, Birch, Waiting for the Sunrise, Rinna, Import, and Palatino Linotype.
